SUMMARY

I'm a passionate and curious BCA student with a growing skillset in software development and web technologies.
Over the past few years, I've worked on real-world projects like a graphic designer portfolio website and a vehicle parking system, using tools like HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and SQL.
I enjoy solving problems through code and learning new things every day.
With experience in languages like C, C++, Java, and working knowledge of Linux and MS Office tools, I'm eager to contribute to meaningful projects and continue growing in the tech field.
